CATALOGUE

Ordering information: Please send check, money order, or cash to: Peg Arnoldussen, 1908 N. Douglas St., Appleton, WI 54914. Prices include U.S. shipping, including Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico. Be sure to specify which product(s) you are ordering.

Though sending cash is not usually recommended (I don't do it), I like receiving it because it saves me a trip to the bank to cash checks. When people send cash, I acknowledge receipt immediately and also ship immediately (next day). If you send cash, please wrap it in a sheet of paper so it can't be seen through the envelope.

Tumbled stone inserts are not currently available.

Please--do not send credit card numbers; I cannot accept credit cards. For online ordering only, I have PayPal and an online credit card processor. Go to: <http://pinebaskets.tripod.com/booklets.html> and use the appropriate links.

NEW! NEW! NEW! "Coiled Art With Pine Needles - Revised Edition" This new booklet contains the entire original Coiled Art text and illustrations, including Basics for Beginners. It also includes everything new that I've learned over the years. It explains how to use both artificial sinew or raffia as a binder, how to deal with any insert type, how to preserve a basket, how to dye needles, how to construct lids, how to shape, how to make extensions and handles, how to create teneriffe, how to add beads, illustrated stitch glossary. My price,

$10.50, includes shipping. Sale price for PayPal and mail orders, $10.00

"Coiled Art With Pine Needles and Raffia" is a compilation of my original publications: Basics for Beginners, Tips and Tricks, and Stitch Glossary. I decided to publish it and have it professionally printed. Because of the cost of color printing, all graphics are grayscale but exceptionally clear. My price, $8.00, includes shipping.

BIRCH BARK QUILL BOX
PRIMER

"Birch Bark Quill Box Primer" will provide you with the basics of quill box construction that I was unable to find published elsewhere. I learned it through examination of boxes, experimentation, trial and error, a lot of pondering, and the few instructions I was able to find on the subject. This publication's aim is to save you all the grief I experienced. It is not, however, a final authority on the subject; it is a primer. Grayscale. My price, $6.50, includes shipping.

“Iris Teneriffe Pattern” explains how to create the iris teneriffe piece. Pattern price, $4.00, includes shipping.

“Basket of Jewels Pattern” Written and illustrated instructions explain how to coil "basket of jewels" around an agate slice and attach dangling gemstone chip beads. Pattern price, $4.50, includes shipping (agate and beads not included). Any kind of insert can be substituted for the agate slice, and any kind of beads can be substituted for the gemstones.

“Blue and Red Bowl Pattern” Written and illustrated instructions explain how to coil "blue and red bowl" around an insert. Pattern price, $4.50, includes shipping (insert not included). Any kind of insert can be substituted for the stone.

“Jewelry and Pottery Pattern” Written and illustrated instructions explain how to coil on a ceramic pot (or one could easily substitute a gourd or wooden bowl) and attach dangling gemstone chips (or beads can be substituted). Pattern price, $4.00, includes shipping (base and beads not included)

“Braids and Feathers” This round "feather" style reed basket can be made with or without a wooden base, with alternate instructions for base with attached handle or twined bottom with D handle. O'Brian Fret Work sells the various 5.5" base options. Pattern only: $4.00, including shipping.

“Rib Frame Basket” This ribbed basket requires a special frame from O'Brian Fret Work that I designed. It simplifies the ribbed basket process by eliminating the woven ears and difficulty of fitting the primary ribs. I loved working with this thing. Pattern only: $4.00, including shipping.

“Ribbed Basket” This ribbed basket, as is, is very large, requiring 14" diameter hoops. However, the pattern includes general instructions for how to use smaller hoops and resize it. Pattern only: $4.00, including shipping.

“Double Wall” This graceful double wall design is continuous weave, both inner and outer, and requires one 5.5" solid base preferably from O'Brian Fret Work. Pattern only: $4.00, including shipping.

"Quatrefoil Bowl" The quatrefoil bowl requires a 4.5" or 5.5" base preferably from O'Brian. O'Brian's options include a variety of fret work styles or solid parquet. Pattern only: $4.00, including shipping.
